

*'Vincent identifies, with forensic precision, the different ways in which men react to changing times' **** The Observer*

SHUT DOWN

FREE 2 HOUR CREATIVE WORKSHOPS FOR GROUPS

Brighton Festival 2018

Come and explore the pressures, contradictions and confusions of being a man with your school / college or community group.

As part of Vincent Dance Theatre's SHUT DOWN Film Installation at ONCA Gallery during Brighton Festival 2018, VDT are offering FREE creative workshops. The workshops are suitable for 11+ Performing Arts, English, Photography, Film, Art, PSHE students & community groups. (max capacity 30)

Participants will watch scenes from Vincent Dance Theatre's SHUT DOWN, which investigates contemporary masculinity then:

- Reflect and share their thoughts on masculinity
- Contribute to a charcoal graffiti wall in the gallery
- Take photos & compose a 1-3min spoken word piece in response to the work, to make into a short video clip. (We plan to share the work made on VDT's YouTube Youth Collection playlist.)

WHEN: Weds, Thurs & Fridays from 9th May - 24th May 2018

TIMES: 10am-12pm sessions (some flexibility)

WHERE: ONCA Gallery 14 St George's Place, Brighton, BN1 4GB

TO BOOK YOUR SESSION contact VDT's Engagement Manager:

sian@vincentdt.com OR call 01273911616