

vincent dance theatre

LOOK AT ME NOW, MUMMY

Directed & Designed by Charlotte Vincent

Lighting Design
James Harrison

Devised & Performed by Aurora Lubos

Understudy / Rehearsal Director
Valentina Formenti

Aurora Lubos is a performer of rare beauty. Soft, fluid, witty and endearing, her performance style appears improvised, but is meticulously crafted to devastating effect.

After taking a break to have her first child in Poland, Look At Me Now, Mummy finds Aurora older but no wiser, dressing up and dressing down to find the right look for a show she is already in.

Look At Me Now, Mummy is an intimate, funny and moving portrait of a woman lost in her own over-zealous imagination. It's about trial and error, and theatrical failures, with a baby always crying somewhere in the distance.

This is a live recording. Video Edit: Oskar Piotr Martin

vincent dance theatre

THE WORKSTATION
15 PATERNOSTER ROW
SHEFFIELD S1 2BX

T: +44 (0) 114 221 0369
F: +44 (0) 114 221 2589
admin@vincentdt.com

www.vincentdt.com

'Small but beautiful.' The Observer

Commissioned in 2007 by Danceworks UK (South Yorkshire), The Point (Eastleigh), Lakeside Arts Centre (Nottingham) and Tron Theatre (Glasgow) and funded by Arts Council England. Vincent Dance Theatre is regularly funded by Arts Council England, Yorkshire.

Photo: Matthew Simpson

LOOK AT ME NOW, MUMMY

vincent dance theatre

vincent dance theatre
LOOK AT ME NOW, MUMMY

ARTS COUNCIL
ENGLAND