GET INVOLVED

Come to the theatre bar before the show 2–5 November to explore some of the ideas from Virgin Territory with Vincent Dance Theatre.

Follow VDT's social awareness campaign #VDTEverydayAction that offers practical actions anyone can do to combat everyday sexism.

WHY? What's Happening for the Young returns to the Southbank Centre to consider how under-18s can understand and use their rights to influence the world around them.

VIRGIN TERRITORY workshops will be taking place on 22 & 23 October 2016.

Suitable ages 14+
VIRGIN TERRITORY is commissioned by The Place. VDT is Associate Company at Brighton Dome and Festival, Artistic Partner with Yorkshire Dance and a National Portfolio Organisation, funded by Arts Council England.

With Vincent Dance Theatre's trademark black humour, VIRGIN TERRITORY takes an uncompromising look at what it's like for young people to live in an over-stimulating, over-sexualised, digitally captured world.

Four adults and four children negotiate some uncomfortable truths about the culture we live in, where bodies are exposed, identities are faked and our deepest truths remain hidden.

Unflinching in its honesty and hopeful in its intent, VIRGIN TERRITORY is a heartbreaking, rallying cry from the 'astonishingly original' Vincent Dance Theatre (New York Times) to just let our kids be kids.

'Charlotte Vincent is one of the most important feminist artists working in Britain today. Contemporary dance fans should beat a path to her door.'
