

Drama

Day of the Dead

Tuesday 22nd
November
7.30pm

Presented by Theatre in Cahoots

Set against the vivid festival background of the Mexican "Day of the Dead" the story of three colourful characters comes alive. An irrepressible optimist with a weakness for Tequila, his beautiful wife and their unexpected guest! The tale unfolds hilariously and unexpectedly, venturing where angels black comedy that explores the face of death and decides to laugh at it.

The cast of Theatre in Cahoots have developed a physical comedy style that will amuse, amaze and astound with it's inventiveness. Directed by John Wright, of Trestle Theatre, this International production has been commissioned as part of Eurofest 1994. The company are also leading a wild and wonderful workshop in clowning and physical theatre skills - BOOK EARLY and soak up the hypnotic sounds of Salsa.

Tickets;
£3.00/ £2.00/
£1.50 (RC)

Dance Platform contd.

Dance

Vincent Dance Theatre - This Sheffield company's uncompromising and fiercely athletic work is certain to both provoke and delight.

Company Ubersee - performing an aerial dance this is an exciting mix of dance on a single vertical rope and movement on the floor - seeing is believing!!

RAW - A young peoples performance group directed by regional Choreographers

Helen Watson & Band

Music

The remarkable talent of Helen Watson will blow your mind !! Frequently described as Britain's premier blues "Diva", Helen and her band will perform a mixture of original material and covers inspired by those she has worked and recorded with; Joe Cocker, Glyn Johns, Little Feat and Albert Lee to name but a few. Her dynamite delivery and lazy eloquence guarantee a remarkable night out.

This is a rare opportunity to see one of the country's finest musicians and should not be missed.

Sunday
27th November
8.00pm

Tickets;
£5.00/
£4.00/
£3.00 (RC)

Dance

Dance Platform

Friday
25th November
7.30pm

We are delighted once again to host some of the best regional up and coming dance companies. The Dance Platform is an opportunity for you to sample sections of three companies current touring shows.

Tickets;
£4.00/ £3.00/
£2.00 (RC)