Vincent Dance Theatre
INTERCOURSE

Yes, sexual not social. A violent, intimate, high-energy duet of fiercely athletic work, exploring the fragile human quest for intimacy. A new piece from choreographer Charlotte Vincent, whose work has been acclaimed as "gobsmacking, outrageous" by The Guardian. This show contains strong language and nudity.

ANDY SHEPPARD and STEVE LODDER:
SMALL Co-MOTION

Andy Sheppard is the British sax player. No contest. A Coltrane-inspired maestro transcending the bounds of his influences. He appears tonight with keyboard player Steve Lodder. This duo sums up his work, inspiring, funky, delicate and beautiful and as sharp as his haircut. "The sublime authority of a master" – BBC Music Magazine. Supported by Jazz Action.

YACKETY YAC(K)
COMEDY CLUB

Mark Hurst/Roger Monkhouse

Mark Hurst – with incisive Yorkshire wit, he is consistently fresh and funny. A TV regular, guest on BBC's Loose Talk, with even a spot on Des o'Connor's show before it was fashionable ... Roger Monkhouse – sparkling cynic, snarling leveller and sexual deviant. He is son of Bob. Probably. As seen on YTV's Something for the Weekend. "Not pretty", says The Guardian, "but always invigorating". PLUS 'Open Spot'.
