

Vincent Dance Theatre presents

Let The Mountains Lead You To Love

“Major work by a serious artist” The Stage

Set in a white landscape, strewn with autumn leaves, Vincent Dance Theatre's new production is a rich and playful look at love in its various forms, full of vitality, innocence and a healthy dose of cynicism. In contrast to the heartbreaking ferocity of last year's Drop Dead Gorgeous, Let the Mountains Lead You To Love releases six extraordinary performers from the restrictions of the city to indulge in the confusions of sexuality, the puzzles of attraction and the joys of fake folk-dancing. Funny, touching and achingly honest, the company's striking physicality, dark humour and emotionally charged performance style ensure an evening of physical dance theatre at its raw and startling best complete with live music.

Friday 7 March

7.30pm Tickets: £7.50 / £6.00

Group rate: £4.50

Free post show chat

See page 20 for workshop details

Promoted by The Arc Theatre in collaboration with Swindon Dance

Derek Grant presents

The Best Of Joyce Grenfell

Featuring Maria Gibbs with Martin Richardson at the piano

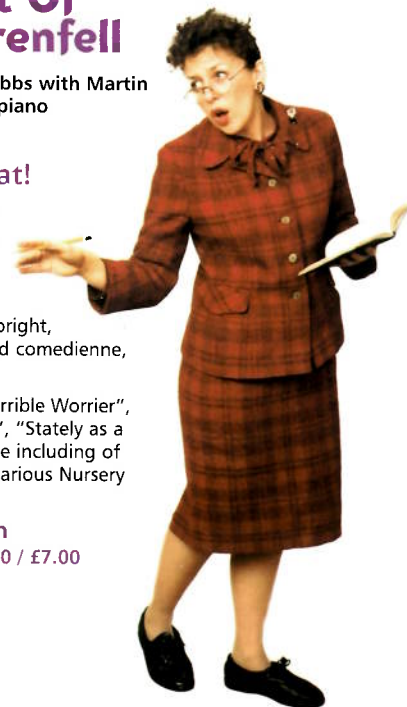

George...
DON'T do that!

A wonderful evening of warmth, wit and gentle humour. All the favourite monologues, sketches and songs are here, presented by the bright, new, young and talented comedienne, Maria Gibbs.

Sit back and enjoy "A Terrible Worrier", "The Old Girl's Reunion", "Stately as a Galleon" and many more including of course the complete, hilarious Nursery School routine.

Saturday 15 March

8.00pm Tickets: £8.50 / £7.00

A Bug's Life Sat 8 March 2.30pm

Chocolat Sat 8 March 7.00pm

www.arctheatre.org.uk 5

Vincent Dance Theatre Let the Mountains Lead You To Love

Tue 1 & Wed 2 April
8pm

“A serious artist unafraid to explore the dark ambiguities of human

Set in a white landscape, strewn with autumn leaves, Vincent Dance Theatre's new production is a rich and playful look at love in its various forms, full of vitality, innocence and a healthy dose of cynicism.

The company's striking physicality, dark humour and emotionally-charged performance style deliver an evening of physical theatre at its raw and startling best.