Vincent Dance Theatre presents

Let the Mountains Lead You to Love

Directed by Charlotte Vincent
Designed by Richard Lowdon
Soundtrack by John Avery

*'We make a dwelling in the evening air,
In which being there together is enough'*
(Wallace Stevens)

Set in a white landscape, strewn with autumn leaves, Vincent Dance Theatre's new production is a rich and playful look at love in its various forms, full of vitality, innocence and a healthy dose of cynicism.

Let the Mountains Lead You to Love releases six extraordinary performers from the restrictions of the city to indulge in the confusions of sexuality, the puzzles of attraction and the joys of fake folk-dancing.

Let The Mountains Lead You to Love brings together performers from Austria, Poland and the UK, celebrating cross European collaboration in a pastoral setting, and revealing the unspoken dreams, daring aspirations and deep regrets of everyone involved.

Funny, touching and achingly honest, Let The Mountains Lead You To Love sees the return of TC Howard, Aurora Lubos and live violinist Patrycja Kujawska, alongside newcomers Eliot Kay, Janusz Orlik, and Iris Heitzinger. The company's striking physicality, dark humour and emotionally charged performance style ensure an evening of physical theatre at its raw and startling best.

Tickets: £8.50, £6.50 concs
