

On the House

Artistic Director: Charlotte Vincent

Set Design: Richard Lowdon

Soundtrack: John Avery

On the House is a looped video and sound installation, which incorporates a live performance by Vincent Dance Theatre's Artistic Associate TC Howard and Polish dancer Janusz Orlik (Let The Mountains Lead You To Love), a video installation and VDT's 35mm film Glasshouse.

On the House is a physical, visual and sonic delight: a discreet and playful duet in which a man and a woman co-exist in a small and magical place. Taking place in a 'glass' house, the audience witness the couple as they swing, perch, balance, sing, hold, cherish and play together, with every act visible through transparent walls.

Sometimes dark, often funny and performed very close up,

On the House uncovers a universe where real, imagined and filmed time frames collide. Performed without conventional seating, the audience are invited to sit or stand as close to or as far from the action as they wish.

Glasshouse is a short dance theatre film conceived and performed by Charlotte Vincent and Richard Lowdon (Forced Entertainment). The film is an extended apology, a hard-hitting duet which reveals how actions speak louder than words.

Glasshouse has been screened internationally at dance and film festivals since 1998.

Press Reviews

On the House

'... actual and fantasised intimacies made touchingly public' The Guardian

'An exceptional degree of intensity ... impressive in their athleticism and controlled power... engrossing, ingenious synchronisation' Sheffield Telegraph

Let the Mountains Lead You to Love

'An extraordinary work from the outset... emotionally bold and physically remarkable. Charlotte Vincent's multi-task vision is fresh and engaging - elastically watchable'

Independent on Sunday

Drop Dead Gorgeous

'The commitment and intensity of the performers is remarkable' Dance Europe

Glasshouse

'A simply striking performance film' Film 4
